

LOCAL LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT NAMED BY CANISIUS COLLEGE WOMEN’S BUSINESS CENTER AS 2007 ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR

North Tonawanda, NY (September 25, 2007) – Joy Kuebler, owner, Joy Kuebler Landscape Architect, PC, has been named 2007 Entrepreneur of the Year by the Canisius College Women’s Business Center. The award, which was presented in May, is given to a business that has demonstrated growth, achievement, dedication and motivation.

Throughout her career, Ms. Kuebler has focused her work on the human experience in the landscape, integrating architecture and the logistics of the outdoors to create unique and inspiring environments. She formed Joy Kuebler Landscape Architect, PC in 2003 to have a positive impact on the quality of life for people through sensitive and responsible designs for outdoor spaces.

“My goal is to promote the use of place-based, or community based, design methods in landscape architecture to better respond to the complexities and interrelatedness of our culture and natural systems,” says Ms. Kuebler.

Ms. Kuebler resides in North Tonawanda, NY with her husband, son and daughter. She received her bachelor’s degree in landscape architecture from Cornell University. She is also a member of the American Society of Landscape Architects.

The Women's Business Center is a collaborative effort between the Small Business Administration and Canisius College. Its mission is to provide entrepreneurs and small business owners, with a focus on women, the critical skills, knowledge, tools and support network to increase their successes and positively impact the economic development in their communities.

# #